

NORTHERN LIGHTS RADIO SOCIETY CONSTITUTION

Preamble

We, the undersigned, wishing to secure for ourselves the pleasures and benefits of an association of persons commonly interested in Amateur Radio, constitute the Northern Lights Radio Society and enact this Constitution and By-laws as our governing law. It shall be our purpose to further the exchange of information and cooperation between members, to promote radio knowledge, fraternalism, and individual operating efficiency, and to so conduct club programs and activities as to advance the general interest and welfare of Amateur Radio in the Community.

Article I: Membership

Section 1. - All persons interested in Amateur Radio communication shall be eligible for membership.

Section 2. - Dues, not to exceed $12.00 per annum, may be levied against the membership for the support of the goals, purpose, and activities of the organization. Dues shall be due and payable no later than the Annual Meeting of each year.

Article II: Officers

Section 1. - The officers of this club shall be: President, Vice-President, and Secretary/Treasurer; each of whom shall have the normal duties associated with these positions, and as amplified in the By-laws.

Section 2. - The officers of this club shall be elected for a term of two years, with election held at the annual business meeting.

Section 3. - Vacancies occurring between elections shall be filled by special election as provided by the By-laws.

Article III: Meetings

Section 1. - The By-laws shall provide for regular and special meetings.

Section 2. - The By-laws shall define a quorum for the transaction of business.

Article IV: Amendments

Proposals for amendments to this Constitution, or the By-laws, shall be submitted in writing to the general membership no later than the meeting prior to that at which a vote shall be taken.

NORTHERN LIGHTS RADIO SOCIETY BY-LAWS

1. Officers

President - The president shall perform the normal duties of the office: preside at all club meetings, conducting them according to the rules adopted; enforce due observance of the Constitution and Bylaws; decide all questions of order; sign all official documents adopted by the club, and perform all other duties pertaining to the office of President.

Vice-president - The vice-president shall assume all the duties of the president in his absence. Additionally, he shall organize club activities, plan and recommend contests for operating benefits, and advance club interest and activities as approved by the club.

Secretary/Treasurer - It shall be the duty of the secretary/treasurer to keep the Constitution and By-laws of the club and make the same available at every meeting. The secretary/treasurer shall note all amendments, changes and additions on the constitution and shall permit it to be consulted by members upon request. The secretary/treasurer shall keep a record of the proceeding of all meetings, keep a role of current members and dues paid, submit membership applications, carry on all correspondence, and read communications at each club meeting. The secretary/treasurer shall be responsible for the finances of the club, and is empowered to make disbursements of club funds in accordance with the Constitution. The secretary/treasurer shall provide a Financial Report at the Annual Meeting. At the expiration of his term the secretary shall turn over all items belonging to the club to the incoming secretary/treasurer.

Vacancies - Vacancies occurring between elections shall be filled by special election. Notice of election must be given to current members no later than two (2) weeks prior to the regular meeting at which the election will occur.

2. Membership

Membership (Full or Associate, described below) is granted to the applicant by filling out and submitting a membership form to the club's secretary.

Full membership - Full membership carries all club privileges as well as right to hold a club office and to vote for club officers. Full membership is open to licensed Amateurs.

Associate membership - Associate Membership includes all club privileges except for the right to hold office and vote for club officers. Associate Membership is open to those actively engaged in a class leading to an Amateur Radio license and all other interested persons.

A member shall be considered current and in good standing by being active in amateur radio contests, by attending club meetings and events, or be considered a contributor to club affairs by a club officer.

3. Meetings

There shall be one meeting each year designated as the "annual business meeting."

4. Quorum

A quorum shall consist of one-third (1/3) of current members. Current members not present at a given meeting may convey written proxies to the Secretary regarding any votes to be taken at that meeting. Such proxies shall be considered as "current members present" for the purpose of a quorum.

5. Voting

1. Elections and business - Elections and business shall be decided by a simple majority of a quorum.
2. Amendments - Amendments to the Constitution or By-laws shall be decided by a two-thirds majority of a quorum.
